

Policy revised by Søren Banke January 2016

KLATRESKOVEN 2016

General conditions:

1) Smoking is not allowed anywhere in Klatreskoven.

2) Booking: When booking you will disclose expected minimum number of participants, which will then appear on the forwarded confirmation via e-mail. A binding minimum number of participants must be reported at least 14 days before the event. If more participants show up to the event, you will pay for the numbers in attendance, if there is space and opportunity for this. If fewer participants show up, there will be no refund. Payment must be made at least 10 business days before the day of the event. If the payment is not in our account 10 business days before, the booking will be cancelled without further notice.

3) Cancellation: Cancellation of a booked event must be made in writing by e-mail. If this happens at least 14 days before the event, it can be cancelled at no cost. If this happens less than 14 days before, you must pay the full amount of your event. The cancellation is only valid at a return mail.

4) Klatreskoven reserves the right to change/cancel/replace activities/programs, if the weather prevents a safe execution. Klatreskoven reserves the right to offer other activities to replace the activity/activities, which cannot be executed pursuant to above. Klatreskoven has a duty to do everything they can to execute the event as close to the agreed upon contents as possible without an increased risk or inconvenience for the participants. If the event is cancelled, a makeup day will be offered. Money cannot be refunded.

5) If the participants do not wish to complete one or more activities pursuant to above, no payment will be refunded.

6) All activities with Klatreskoven take place in a reassuring environment and at a very high safety level. All equipment including parkours, which is used by Klatreskoven, has been approved by the Danish Technological Institute and is in safe conditions. All trainers are educated and trained in accordance with ERCA's European standards.

7) Each individual participant has a duty to inform Klatreskoven about personal injuries, illnesses, pregnancy or the like. The trainer can give advice in every particular circumstance whether participation will be safe. It is the individual's own responsibility whether he/she chooses to participate. Klatreskoven cannot be held liable for possible repercussions, aggravation of injuries, abortion, etc.

8) At all events, there are activities planned for the full duration of the event. Therefore, we recommend that everyone arrives 15 minutes before the beginning of the event, so the activities can start on time. If you are late, or if the participants are not ready by the agreed upon time, Klatreskoven reserves the right to change the program and possibly to remove activities so the end time can be abided by. By agreement with the liable trainer, you can possibly pay to extend the event, if this is possible, so that all planned/promised activities can be completed. Likewise, we recommend, that the liability waiver has been filled out prior to arrival, so that this does not take away time from the planned activities.

Policy revised by Søren Banke January 2016

9) It is not allowed to be under the influence of alcohol and psychedelic drugs during an event. Klatreskoven reserves the right to reject, change, stop, or completely cancel an event without any refunds, if this is ascertained. It is only the liable trainer, who will assess and decide on this. Likewise, the same rules apply if the participants do not follow the given safety regulations and/or do not use the required safety equipment.